HEAD COACH SAM PITTMAN

Sam Pittman returns to The Hill as the 34th head coach in Razorback history after four seasons on staff at Georgia, including this last season when he served as the Associate Head Coach and offensive line coach for the Bulldogs. Georgia was just the most recent stop of Pittman's career that has spanned the high school, junior college and collegiate levels.

The Oklahoma native has coached at seven different Power 5 schools during his 32 years of coaching, including Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, North Carolina and Tennessee. With a wealth of experience, Pittman is widely regarded as one of the nation's best offensive line coaches and recruiters. He has coached 15 players that have been selected in the NFL Draft since 2013, including first round picks Andrew Thomas (4th overall in 2020), Isaiah Wilson (29th overall in 2020), Frank Ragnow (20th overall in 2018), Isaiah Wynn (23rd overall in 2018), Ja'Wuan James (19th overall in 2014) and Jonathan Cooper (7th overall in 2013). Overall, Pittman has coached seven offensive linemen that were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, including Stockar McDougle (20th overall in 2000). Travis Swanson also became the highest drafted Razorback center in school history when he was picked 76th overall in 2014.

"Sam Pittman has been an integral part of successful teams that have competed at the highest levels, including for SEC and NCAA Championships," Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Hunter Yurachek said. "As one of the nation's premier offensive line coaches, he has built a remarkable body of work thanks to his tremendous passion for his student-athletes, including teaching the fundamentals and developing his players on and off the field. Sam instills in his players the motivation, grit and determination required to compete and win. Throughout this process, I heard from many of his former players about the tremendous influence he had on them as a player and as a man."

"Sam knows the Southeastern Conference inside and out and is one of the nation's best recruiters. His connections throughout football will enable him to build a quality coaching staff. In his previous tenure, Sam and his wife Jamie fell in love with the state of Arkansas and with Razorback fans. They know what a special place this is and are excited for the opportunity to come back to the Home of the Razorbacks."

Pittman arrived in Athens in 2016 as the offensive line coach as part of Kirby Smart's first staff. In his four seasons with the Bulldogs, Pittman helped Georgia to unprecedented success including three-straight Southeastern Conference Eastern Division titles. In 2019, the Bulldogs' rushing attack was led by D'Andre Swift, who finished fourth in the league with 1,216 yards just ahead of Arkansas' Rakeem Boyd (1,133).

The 2017 Bulldogs were a special team, winning 13 games, the SEC championship and making the school's first-ever College Football Playoff appearance - a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl. Georgia's offense that year was the best in the SEC and ninth nationally in rushing, led by Nick Chubb and Sony Michel. During his four seasons in Athens, he was part of a staff that produced four Top 10 recruiting classes, including the nation's No. 1 class in 2018.

An original member of Bret Bielema's staff at Arkansas in 2013, Pittman helped build the Razorbacks' offensive line into one of the best in the league. He quickly made an impact, helping Travis Swanson earn first-team All-America honors and be a Rimington Trophy finalist in 2013. His first two offensive lines at Arkansas led the SEC in sacks allowed per game and his offensive line in 2014 paved the way for two 1,000-yard rushers in Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins. That OL also averaged 328.4 pounds per player as the largest offensive line in the FBS and NFL that season.

In Pittman's final year in Fayetteville his offensive line contributed to an offense that finished second in the SEC in total offense (456.8 ypg), second in scoring (40.2 ppg) and third in passing offense (264.2 ypg). During his tenure with the Razorbacks, Pittman mentored some of the best offensive linemen at Arkansas in recent memory, including Swanson, Sebastian Tretola, Dan Skipper and Frank Ragnow.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

1980-03 Pittsburg State (Kan.)

First-team NAIA All-American, twice all-conference ... inducted into PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998.

Pittman's coaching career began in 1987 as the head coach at Princeton (Mo.) HS. He coached at Hutchinson (Kan.) CC for three seasons, including the final two as the head coach, before getting his first FBS opportunity at Northern Illinois in 1994. He later returned to NIU to help the Huskies to a pair of division championships and two bowl games. Pittman got his first experience in the SEC in 2012 when he joined the staff at Tennessee.

Pittman played defensive end at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. He is married to his wife, Jamie.

BARRY ODOM

BARRY ODOM

Associate Head Coach/
Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Former Missouri head coach Barry Odom is set for his first season as the Razorbacks' defensive coordinator after spending the last four years at his alma mater, leading the Tigers to a pair of bowl games and finishing the 2018 regular season ranked 23rd in the College Football Playoff poll.

Odom's Missouri teams were known for their stout defenses thanks to his prowess on that side of the ball. The Tigers ended the 2019 regular season as one of the nation's top defenses, ranking 14th in the country in total defense (312.0 ypg) and third in the Southeastern Conference. His defense also did not allow many points this past fall, giving up just 19.4 points per game to rank 17th in FBS. The defense was particularly strong against the pass, ranking sixth in the nation and second in the SEC with just 179.3 yards per game allowed. Linebacker Nick Bolton led the way, earning first-team All-SEC and leading the SEC with 107 total tackles.

He became just the fourth coach in Missouri history to lead the Tigers to a bowl game in two of his first three seasons when Mizzou earned a berth in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in 2018. That Tiger team finished strong for the second year in a row, going 4-0 in November including a 38-17 win at No. 11 Florida that was Missouri's largest road win over a ranked opponent since 2008. His 2017 team won six-straight to finish 7-5 in the regular season and earn a trip to the Academy Sports + Outdoor Texas Bowl. That season saw Odom turn the program around after starting 0-4 in SEC play, winning the next four league games to become the first SEC team to start conference play 0-4 and finish 4-4.

Odom returned to Missouri in 2015 as the program's defensive coordinator and produced immediately with the Tigers ranking ninth nationally in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. That defense became the first Mizzou defense to rank inside the nation's top 10 since the NCAA started keeping defensive stats in 1978. The same defense ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 ppg) and pass defense (169.2 ypg) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 per game).

The Maysville, Oklahoma, native took over his first defensive coordinator duties at Memphis in 2012. In three years with the Tigers, he transformed Memphis into a defensive power. In 2014, his defense ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 ppg) and 22nd nationally in total defense (343.3 ypg) to help Memphis go 10-3. That season marked an incredible turnaround for the Tigers' defense that ranked 117th nationally prior to his arrival. Memphis improved defensively each year under Odom rising from 50th nationally in total defense (383.6 ypg) in 2012 to 39th (370.7 ypg) in 2013 to 27th (349.5 ypg) in his final year.

Odom's Missouri roots run deep having starred as a linebacker for the Tigers 1996-99, including a pair of teams that earned trips to bowl games (1997, 1998). He ended his career inside the school's top 10 career tackle leaders with 362 tackles. He also served as a team captain as a senior in 1999.

Following graduation, he worked for the Tiger Scholarship Fund while working on his Master's in Education. After a brief three-year stint as a high school coach – first at his alma mater Ada (Okla.) HS as an assistant then as head coach for two years at Rock Bridge HS in Columbia, Missouri – he returned to Missouri as a graduate assistant in 2003. He began his climb in the organization

SCOTT FOUNTAIN

SCOTT FOUNTAIN

Assistant Head Coach/
Special Teams Coordinator

Scott Fountain will serve as the assistant head coach and special teams coordinator for head coach Sam Pittman.

Fountain comes to Arkansas after spending 2019 at Georgia in the same role. The Bulldogs saw immediate success with Fountain at the controls, led by kicker and Lou Groza Award winner Rodrigo Blankenship. The first-team All-SEC kicker capped an impressive career at UGA going 27-for-33 (81.8%) on field goals and making all 46 extra points as the Bulldogs won the 2020 Allstate Sugar Bowl. Blankenship was also a weapon on kickoffs allowing just 14 returns all season. Punter Jake Camarda improved in 2019 as well, upping his average to 46.8 yards per punt to rank sixth nationally.

In 2018, Georgia had two of the SEC's top special teams players in return man Mecole Hardman and Blankenship. Hardman led the SEC in punt return average (20.1), was fifth in kick return average (25.2) and was named to the ESPN.com All-America first team.

A Lou Groza semifinalist, Blankenship earned second team All-SEC honors after finishing fifth in the SEC in scoring by kickers (8.7 points per game) and connected on a school-record 154 consecutive PATs. He also posted 82 kickoff touchbacks (season record) extending his school career record to 170.

As a team, the Bulldogs were first in the SEC in punt return yards (366) and punt return average (16.6; seventh nationally) and tied for first in punt return touchdowns (2).

Fountain also contributed to the Bulldogs' emergence on special teams in 2017. Hardman averaged 25.3 yards per kick return, ranking second in the SEC and 21st nationally. Georgia's special teams unit also held opponents to 5.9 yards per punt return and 19.5 yards per kick return. Those numbers were all reduced from a year prior, as opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, 23.8 yards per kick return and notched two 95-yard kickoff returns versus the Bulldogs in 2016.

Additionally, Blankenship hit on 20 of his 23 field goal attempts, including a 55-yarder in the 2018 Rose Bowl vs. Oklahoma and a 51-yarder in overtime of the national championship game. He made all 63 of his PAT attempts, kicked 67 touchbacks (a Georgia season record at the time and third nationally) and was named a semifinalist for the 2017 Lou Groza Award. Punter Cameron Nizialek averaged 45.0 yards per punt to rank ninth nationally and was named a semifinalist for the 2017 Ray Guy Award.

Fountain joined Georgia's full time, on-field staff, in 2018, after filling the same position at Mississippi State during the offseason. Fountain was the special teams analyst at Georgia during the 2017 season.

Before joining Georgia's staff, Fountain had spent the previous eight years as a member of the football program at Auburn, the first four as the Tigers' player personnel director and the latter four coaching tight ends and special teams. From 2014-16, Fountain coached kicker Daniel Carlson, a three-time Lou Groza Award finalist.

Fountain, a part of three SEC championship teams, led Auburn's administrative and recruiting efforts from 2009-12. He followed Gene Chizik to Auburn after spending two seasons (2007-08) on Chizik's staff at Iowa State as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Fountain has coached in four national championship games (1997, 2010, 2013, 2017) since beginning his collegiate coaching career at Florida State (1994-96) as an offensive graduate assistant. He then spent seven seasons as an offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at UCF. Before his eight-year stint at Auburn, Fountain also included coaching stops at Middle Tennessee State (2004-05), Georgia Southern (2006) and Iowa State (2007-08).

He began his coaching career in high school, making four stops in Alabama, including Flomaton HS (1988) and W.S. Neal HS (1989), his alma mater. He became a head coach for the first time at Frisco City HS (1990-92) made his final high school stop at Monroe County HS (1993)."

Fountain earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Samford in 1988 and a master's degree in educational leadership from Florida State in 1998.

He is married to the former Rosie Hidalgo and the couple has four sons: Brookes, Hunter, Tanner and Skyler.

KENDAL BRILES

KENDAL BRILES

Offensive Coordinator

Kendal Briles brings a wealth of knowledge and success to Arkansas as a play caller during his career. The 2015 Broyles Award finalist led offenses at each of his four coaching stops - Florida State, Houston, Florida Atlantic and Baylor. Since taking over play-calling duties prior to the Cotton Bowl at the end of the 2014 season, when his Baylor offense set an NCAA bowl record with 601 passing yards against Michigan State, Briles' offenses have averaged 39.5 points per game.

At Florida State, Briles took over a struggling offense that ranked 103rd in total offense (361.2 ypg) and 113th in scoring (21.9 ppg) in 2018. In his lone season with the Seminoles, he engineered an offense that improved greatly in both categories gaining 403.2 yards per game and scoring 29.1 points per game. The Noles' running game saw the biggest improvement going from one of the worst in the FBS (91.1 ypg) in 2018 to 133.8 yards per game in 2019. The FSU offense also saw huge turnarounds in the red zone (78.1% in 2018, 86.5% in 2019) and third down conversions (29.1% in 2018, 37.5% in 2019). Briles' offense was led by a pair of All-ACC performers this season in RB Cam Akers and WR Tamorrion Terry.

Briles called one of the most explosive offenses in the nation in 2018 at Houston, ranking in the top 10 in both total offense (7th - 512.5 ypg) and points per game (5th - 43.9 ppg). The Cougars were one of just three teams to rank in the top 25 nationally in passing and rushing, averaging 295.5 yards (16th in FBS) through the air and 216.8 yards (24th) on the ground. Houston's offense was explosive, scoring at least 30 points in each of the first 12 games of the season, including an NCAA leading 10 games of at least 40 points. The offense put points on the board in 47 of 52 quarters and opened the year with a program-best eight straight games of 40-plus points.

Junior quarterback D'Eriq King flourished under Briles' direction, putting together one of the best seasons in the nation in 2018. King, who was injured in the team's 11th game, needed only 10 games to break the American Athletic Conference's single-season touchdown responsibility record with 50. His average of 27.5 points responsible for per game led the nation and was four points higher than the next-closest competitor, Heisman Trophy finalist Dwayne Haskins. King also led the AAC in total offense, passing touchdowns, passing efficiency and completion percentage.

Briles coordinated the offense at FAU in 2017 helping the Owls to the sixth-best rushing attack in the FBS with 285.3 yards per game. The same offense ranked eighth nationally with 40.6 points per game and ninth in total offense with 498.4 yards per game. The Owls' offense helped lead the program to its first Conference USA championship and an 11-3 record, including a win in the Boca Raton Bowl. RB Devin Singletary became FAU's first Associated Press All-American and was named C-USA MVP after leading the nation with 32 rushing touchdowns. He rushed for 1,920 yards before being picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

Briles spent the first nine years of his coaching career at Baylor helping the Bears to unprecedented success, including back-to-back Big 12 titles. He served in numerous roles for the Bears as the inside wide receivers coach, passing game coordinator and recruiting coordinator before taking over as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for his final two seasons in Waco. His recruiting efforts were recognized in 2013 and 2014 as the Big 12's Recruiter of the Year.

He was a Broyles Award finalist in 2015 after leading Baylor's offense to historic numbers, leading the NCAA with 48.1 points per game and 616.2 yards of total offense - the third-highest average in a single season in NCAA history.

OL Spencer Drago was a consensus All-American and WR Corey Coleman won the Biletnikoff Award leading nine Bears named All-Big 12. Baylor ended that season with a win over No. 10 North Carolina in the Russell Athletic Bowl racking up an NCAA bowl record 645 rushing yards and a bowl record 756 yards of total offense. His 2016 offense led the Big 12 in rushing with 241.2 yards per game. Baylor's 2013 offense produced the second-highest total offense season average in NCAA history with 618.8 yards per game.

During his seven years as the Bears' wide receivers coach, he tutored four All-Americans and five eventual NFL receivers, including Terrance Williams and Kendall Wright. Williams, who was a third-round pick by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2013 NFL Draft, broke the Baylor single-season receiving record and led the nation with 1,832 yards on his way to being only the sixth unanimous All-American in program history. Wright, the 20th overall selection in the 2012 NFL Draft, was an All-American in 2011 and broke every major school receiving record.

He was an outstanding high school quarterback in Texas, earning Texas 4A Offensive Player of the Year in each of his final two seasons after generating 9,322 yards of total offense and accounting for 98 touchdowns. He began his collegiate playing career at Texas, where he redshirted in 2001 before playing seven games at safety and intercepting two passes in 2002. He then transferred to Houston and moved to wide receiver, catching 70 passes for 680 yards and a score. He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Houston in 2005 and was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2014.

Briles and his wife Sarah have three children: sons, Jaytn and Kru, and daughter, Kinley.

SAM CARTER

SAM CARTER

Cornerbacks

Sam Carter joins the Hogs from Missouri where he was on staff working with the defense in quality control and analyst roles.

Carter helped the Tigers' defense rank as one of the best in the nation, particularly in the secondary, in 2019. Missouri's pass defense ranked sixth in the FBS and second in the Southeastern Conference allowing only 179.3 yards per game. The Tigers were even tougher with the ball in the air, leading the nation by allowing opponents to complete just 50.3% of passes for 2,151 yards – seventh fewest in FBS. Mizzou had four players inside the SEC's top 25 of passes defended, including three defensive backs in Joshua Bledsoe, Khalil Oliver and Tyree Gillespie.

Carter was a standout, All-Big 12 safety at TCU prior to starting his coaching career. The New Orleans native played in 49 games for the Horned Frogs from 2011-14, starting 39 including all 38 over his final three years. As a senior he was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, a Senior CLASS Award finalist and a Senior CLASS Award second-team All-American.

JON COOPER

JON COOPER

Tight Ends

Jon Cooper joins the Razorbacks as the team's tight ends coach.

Cooper heads to Fayetteville from UCF, where he coached the Knights' tight ends the last two seasons. In his two years in Orlando, the Knights went an impressive 22-4 including a 2018 American Athletic Conference championship, an undefeated regular season, a trip to the 2019 Fiesta Bowl and a spot in the final Associated Press poll (No. 11).

The Knights' offense was one of the most productive in the nation each of Cooper's two seasons. The 2019 offense finished the regular season in the top 10 nationally in total offense (2nd – 540.5 ypg), scoring (5th – 43.4 ppg) and passing yards (8th – 316.7 ypg). The Knights' total offense set a school record and marked the second straight year under head coach Josh Heupel the UCF offense gained more than 500 yards per game.

In 2018, the Knights scored 43.2 points per game, ranking sixth in the nation, and gained 522.7 yards per game to finish the season ranked fifth in the country. The UCF ground game set a program-best with 265.2 yards per game to finish eighth in the nation.

Senior Michael Colubiale led the way for Cooper's tight ends with 21 catches and three touchdowns to earn All-American Athletic Conference honorable mention status in 2018.

Prior to UCF, Cooper spent two seasons as an offensive analyst for then-offensive coordinator Josh Heupel at Missouri. The Tigers' offense exploded to lead the Southeastern Conference in yards per game in 2017 (502.2 ypg) and points per game (37.5 ppg), while ranking second in passing yards (308.6 ypg).

In his final season in Columbia, Cooper helped the offensive line finish the year ranked eighth nationally in total offense, fifth in sacks allowed (13.0), 14th in scoring offense and passing yards, 18th in first downs (23.4 per game) and 16th in red zone offense (90.6% scoring).

Prior to working at Missouri, Cooper served as a graduate assistant at Utah State. In his lone season with the Aggies in 2015 the offense climbed 21 spots nationally in scoring offense, despite losing its starting quarterback Chuckie Keeton to injury.

Cooper began his coaching career at his alma mater, Oklahoma, as a graduate assistant coach. He spent two seasons with the Sooners while the program went 19-7, including a 45-31 victory over Alabama in the 2014 Sugar Bowl.

He was a three-year starter at center for Oklahoma, earning Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year as a senior in 2008 while blocking for Heisman Trophy winner Sam Bradford. During his playing days with the Sooners, Cooper helped lead Oklahoma to a 42-12 overall record and a spot in the Bowl Championship Series National Championship game as a senior, while garnering two All-Big 12 selections.

Cooper spent four seasons in the NFL, playing 13 games during his first three seasons with the Minnesota Vikings and made his first career start against

BRAD DAVIS

BRAD DAVIS

Offensive Line

Brad Davis joins the Razorbacks as the offensive line coach from Missouri where he served as the Tigers' offensive line coach each of the last two seasons. He helped the Tigers to a 6-6 season in 2019 with his offensive line paving the way for the offense to gain 374.3 yards per game, including 151.7 on the ground.

In 2018, he took over an offensive line that had been built for an offense that averaged 33.1 passes per game in a spread attack in 2017 and transformed the group into a unit that operated in a more balanced, ball control offense, including ranking 40th in the nation and sixth in the SEC in time of possession (30:53). A vast improvement from 2017 when the Tigers ranked next-to-last in the country. The 2018 offense finished the season 13th in the nation in total offense (481.8 ypg), 18th nationally in scoring (36.6 ppg) and 8-5 on the year.

Tre'Vour Wallace-Simms led Davis' first Missouri squad, earning first-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press to become Mizzou's first offensive lineman to win first-team All-SEC accolades since 2013. Wallace-Sims became the 14th lineman tutored by Davis to earn all-conference honors in his career.

Davis joined Missouri after a year with the Florida Gators in 2017. With the Gators, he led a young squad that finished the season without any seniors among the team's two-deep. Despite the youth up front, Florida ran for 165-plus yards in six straight games during the season, the longest such streak since 2009.

Prior to Florida, Davis spent single seasons at North Texas (2016), East Carolina (2015) and James Madison (2014), where he also was the co-offensive coordinator for a Dukes team that finished 9-4 and earned a FCS Playoff berth.

Davis spent five seasons at Portland State (2009-13) as the offensive line coach and run-game coordinator for the Vikings. In his final season in Portland, Mitchell Van Dyk earned first-team All-Big Sky and third-team All-America honors as the Vikings led the Big Sky in total offense and ranked third in FCS in rushing and total offense. PSU set numerous school records that season with 6,486 total yards, 3,330 rushing yards, 277.7 rushing yards per game, 540.5 total yards per game and 36 rushing touchdowns. He worked with future FCS Rimington Award winner Cornelius Edison at PSU before Edison played in the NFL with the Minnesota Vikings.

Pittman has a deep connection with Davis dating back to Davis' playing days at Oklahoma, where Pittman coached Davis for the Sooners in 1997-98. Pittman later brought Davis to North Carolina in 2008 as the offensive line graduate assistant.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Davis is a 2003 graduate of Oklahoma. With the Sooners he was a part of two Big 12 championship teams and the 2000 national championship team. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman in 2002.

Davis and his wife, Anecia, have two sons, Bradley and Brayden.

DERRICK LeBLANC

DERRICK LeBLANC

Defensive Line

Derrick LeBlanc will serve as Sam Pittman's defensive line coach for the Razorbacks.

LeBlanc (pronounced "luh-blon" the "c" is silent) brings SEC experience from LSU and Kentucky and ties to the state of Arkansas having coached at Henderson State (2001-04) and Arkansas Tech (2005).

At Kentucky over the last three seasons, he helped build the Wildcats into a solid program going to three straight bowl games, including a win over Penn State in the 2019 VRBO Citrus Bowl to cap a 10-win campaign. Kentucky went 25-14 overall in his three seasons in the Bluegrass State.

His 2019 defensive line led the way for the Wildcats into opposing backfields, contributing 18 of Kentucky's 33 sacks that ranked fourth in the SEC. Senior Calvin Taylor Jr. paced the Cats with 8.5 to finish second in the league. LeBlanc's line also added 37 tackles for loss with Taylor Jr. and Josh Paschal each totaling 9.5 - second-most on the team. The group also forced eight fumbles.

LeBlanc's maturing defensive line totaled 23.5 tackles for loss and 9.5 quarterback sacks in 2018, well up from 2017. His unit helped the Cats win 10 games for the first time in 41 years, including five SEC games and a 6-1 mark in Lexington. Kentucky's defense ranked fourth in the league allowing 337.9 yards per game and averaged nearly three sacks per game.

With no senior starters in 2017, LeBlanc's young defensive line played a key role in helping the Wildcats hold six opponents under 100 rushing yards, the first time UK had accomplished that feat since 1949. Kentucky also improved points allowed and third-down efficiency. Junior Denzil Ware was among the SEC's best with 6.5 sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss.

LeBlanc arrived at Kentucky after one season as the defensive line coach at North Texas in 2016. He was a part of the Mean Green's remarkable turnaround from winning just one game in 2015 to five wins and an appearance in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl in 2016.

He spent one season as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Pearl River Community College in Poplarville, Mississippi in 2015.

During the 2013 and 2014 seasons, LeBlanc helped revitalize the defensive line at Southern Miss. In his first year he managed a defensive line led by Khyri Thornton, who was named second-team All-Conference USA and selected in the third round (85th overall pick) by the Green Bay Packers in the 2014 NFL Draft. Under LeBlanc's tutelage, Thornton recorded 39 tackles, including 16 solo tackles and 23 assisted tackles. He also coached first-team All-Conference USA selection Rakeem Nunez-Roches, who was a sixth round pick of Kansas City in 2015.

LeBlanc spent one season (2012) at Wyoming where he tutored Mike Purcell to first-team All-Mountain West honors. Purcell was third on the team in tackles with 83 while recording eight tackles for loss. LeBlanc was an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU from 2008-11 under head coach Les Miles.

Prior to LSU, LeBlanc was the defensive line coach for two seasons (2006-

07) at Missouri State. In 2005, he was the defensive line coach and academic coordinator at Arkansas Tech. LeBlanc's first full-time college coaching position was at Henderson State University in 2001. He coached the defensive line and served as the Reddies' strength and conditioning coordinator for four seasons (2001-04).

He began his coaching career in 1997 at Breaux Bridge High School in Breaux Bridge, Louisiana, where he was the offensive and defensive line coach for three seasons from 1997-99. LeBlanc broke into the college ranks in 2000 when he accepted a graduate assistant position at LSU. There he assisted then-defensive line coach Pete Jenkins in coaching the defensive line, as well as assisting the strength and conditioning staff.

LeBlanc, a native of Breaux Bridge, Louisiana, was a four-year football letterman at Northwestern State University (1992-96). He played both defensive and offensive line during his playing career and earned Southland Conference All-Academic honors as both a junior and senior. He graduated from Northwestern State with a degree in business administration and earned a master's degree in sports administration from LSU.

He and his wife, Niema, have two sons, Dayton and Derrick, and one daughter, Kennedy.

RION RHOADES

RION RHOADES

Linebackers

Rion Rhoades gets his first opportunity at the FBS level after coaching the last 14 years as a head coach at the junior college level, including the last 13 as the head coach at Hutchinson Community College in Hutchinson, Kansas.

A former Hutchinson linebacker for Pittman in 1993, Rhoades returned to his alma mater as the head coach in 2007 after turning around a struggling Fort Scott Community College program in just one year. At Hutchinson, Rhoades quickly worked his magic taking the Blue Dragons to a Region VI runner-up finish in his second year, then kicking off a run of six straight seasons that saw his program win the Salt City Bowl, capped by an 11-1 season in 2014 that also claimed the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference and Region VI championships. The Blue Dragons made 10 postseason appearances in Rhoades' 13 seasons as head coach.

Rhoades' career record of 106-55 over 14 years as a head coach in Kansas places him as the fourth winningest coach in Kansas Jayhawk Conference history. While at Hutchinson, Rhoades guided 239 players move onto four-year programs and saw 16 of his former players selected in the NFL Draft or sign as an undrafted free agent. Wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson became the first Blue Dragon to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft when Oakland selected him with the 29th overall pick in the 2013 draft. He also coached running back Alvin Kamara in 2014, who became a three-time Pro Bowl selection and Rookie of the Year with the New Orleans Saints. Rhoades also won two conference coach of the year awards in 2006 and 2014.

In 2019, Rhoades' squad finished 10-2 and No. 3 in the final NJCAA rankings after another Salt City Bowl title. The No. 3 finish was the highest the Blue Dragons have ever finished in the final poll and the fifth time a Rhoades-led Hutchinson team finished inside the Top 10 in his 13 years as head coach. In addition, Hutchinson earned a No. 1 national ranking during the season, the first in the school's history.

As a player at Hutchinson, Rhoades made an immediate impact as a freshman with 138 tackles as a linebacker to help Pittman and the Blue Dragons to a 6-5 season and a trip to the Valley of the Sun Bowl in 1993. As a sophomore and team captain in 1994, Rhoades led Hutchinson with 130 tackles and helped his team to a third-consecutive winning season with an 8-4 record and a ranking of 15th in the final NJCAA poll. Rhoades was an All-Jayhawk Conference honorable mention in 1993 and led the team to a Valley of the Sun Bowl berth. Following his two years at Hutchinson as a player, Rhoades transferred to Western Illinois and then to Northwestern Oklahoma State, where he was an NAIA All-America selection at linebacker.

He and his wife Darcy have three children: daughter, Sydney, and sons, Trevor and Jackson.

JIMMY SMITH

JIMMY SMITH

Running Backs

Jimmy Smith will coach the running backs for Sam Pittman in his first season at Arkansas.

Smith spent last season as the running backs coach at Georgia State. The Panthers featured one of the best running attacks in the Sun Belt led by first-team All-Sun Belt running back Tra Barnett, who led the league and ranked 11th nationally with 111.8 yards per game. Barnett and the Panthers ranked 13th nationally with 241.6 yards per game on the ground as a team.

Smith was a part of the Georgia State's historic upset at Tennessee when the Panthers outrushed the Volunteers, 213-93, to win, 38-30, on opening weekend in the Panthers' first-ever win over a Power 5 program.

Prior to jumping to college football, Smith coached for 12 years at Cedar Grove High School in Metro Atlanta, including his last six years as athletic director, head football coach and head track coach.

In his six seasons at the helm of the football program, he led the Saints to a 67-14-1 record. From 2015-18, Smith led Cedar Grove to two Class AAA state championships in 2016 and 2018 – the first two state titles in school history – as well as berths in the state final four in 2015 and 2017, all while winning 51 games.

Smith arrived at Cedar Grove in 2007 as an assistant football coach, working with receivers and defensive backs before being elevated to offensive coordinator in 2010 for three seasons before taking over as head coach in 2013.

Smith earned numerous coaching accolades, including a pair of Georgia Coach of the Year awards in Class AAA (2016 and 2018) as well as multiple region and county Coach of the Year honors.

He coached six prep All-Americans, and more than 30 of his former student-athletes went on to play at the collegiate level.

As the head track coach, Smith led Cedar Grove to four consecutive state titles (2015-18), also the first state titles in school history. He was honored as the 2018 Region 5-AAA Athletic Director of the Year.

He began his coaching career at Darlington (S.C.) High School, his alma mater, where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for one season in 2005.

Smith was a quarterback at Tennessee State, helping the Tigers to back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference championships in 1998 and 1999.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Fayetteville State in 2002 and added a master's of education from Georgia State in 2009.

Smith, a native of Darlington, S.C., and his wife Quanisha have a son, Jermaine II, and a daughter, Joss.

JUSTIN STEPP

JUSTIN STEPP

Wide Receivers

Justin Stepp enters his third season with the Razorbacks and first on head coach Sam Pittman's staff.

Stepp's recruiting efforts prior to the 2019 season paid immediate dividends as the duo of Treyton Burks and Trey Knox were one of the top freshman receiving duos in the nation. Burks led the Razorbacks with 475 yards and was third on the squad with 29 catches while Knox's 385 yards were third on the squad and his three touchdowns were the second-most caught by a Hog in 2019. Burks also developed into a threat in the kicking game, returning punts and kicks to earn All-SEC second team honors from the league's coaches. Burks and Knox combined for 57 catches and 860 yards, the most among SEC freshmen duos. Mike Woods continued to develop under Stepp in his sophomore season, starting all 12 games and leading the team with 33 catches and four TDs.

His first season on the Hill saw the development of a young group of wideouts, led by freshman Mike Woods. The Magnolia, Texas, native played in 10 games, starting seven, and racked up 206 yards on 18 catches, averaging 11.4 to top returners coming back for the 2019 season.

Stepp was active on the recruiting trail for the Razorbacks this past offseason being named as one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals thanks to the addition of four four-star receivers. The Hogs were the only team in the nation to sign four four-star wide receivers.

In December 2017, he was selected to participate in the 2018 AFCA 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute, a prestigious program aimed at identifying and developing premier, future leaders in the football coaching profession. He was also named a finalist for the 2017 FootballScoop Wide Receivers Coach of the Year award.

During Stepp's seven seasons as a wide receivers coach, he's tutored three different players who have combined for four 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Stepp's protégés Courtland Sutton and Trey Quinn at SMU were two of the most dynamic wide receivers in college football in 2017 and each went on to be selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. The Mustangs boasted one of the most prolific passing attacks in the nation on the strength of All-Americans Sutton and Quinn each posting 1,000-yard receiving seasons. SMU was one of only two schools with multiple 1,000-yard receivers in 2017. In addition, Sutton and Quinn were the only pair of teammates to rank in the top 10 in touchdown receptions and combined for 12 100-yard receiving games with six apiece. Quinn finished the year with 13 TD catches, while Sutton had 12.

A Biletnikoff Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose semifinalist, Quinn led the nation in receptions with 114 and ranked inside the top 15 nationally in receiving touchdowns (No. 4, 13), receiving yards per game (No. 10, 95.1) and receiving yards (No. 11, 1,236). He turned in two of the three top reception performances in the FBS during the regular season with 17 catches twice and became the only player this century to register 15-plus catches in three straight games. The Lake Charles, Louisiana, native was selected by the Washington Redskins with the 256th and final selection of the 2018 draft.

Sutton, a second-round pick of the Denver Broncos, posted career receiving totals of 3,152 yards and 31 touchdowns on 189 receptions in four seasons at SMU. He averaged 16.4 yards per catch in each of his last two seasons, and finished third on the Mustangs' all-time receiving chart.

In 2016, Sutton led the SMU offense for the second straight season, hauling in 76 passes for 1,246 yards and 10 TDs to become SMU's first 1,000-yard receiver since 2013. Sutton was not the Mustangs' only threat through the air, though, as James Proche, caught 57 passes for 709 yards and six scores on his way to Freshman All-America honors.

| 2003-06 | Furman |

Stepp's first season at SMU saw him develop Sutton into one of the country's top freshman. Sutton was named a Freshman All-American in 2015 after leading all FBS freshmen with nine receiving touchdowns. He set an SMU freshman record for receiving yards with 862 and tied Sanders for most touchdowns by a freshman.

Over Stepp's first two seasons at Appalachian State, he coached three players who combined to earn five All-Southern Conference honors, including All-American Sean Price who set FCS freshman records with 81 receptions and 1,196 receiving yards in 2012.

Prior to Appalachian State, he spent three seasons at Clemson as an offensive graduate assistant coach (2011) and an offensive video graduate assistant (2009-10).

In 2011, Stepp played a key role in Clemson's offense. Stepp worked directly with the Tigers' running backs, quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends, while assisting in game-planning and in-game play-calling adjustments. With Stepp on the sideline, Clemson ranked second in the ACC and in the top 30 nationally in scoring (33.6) and total offense (440.8) and boasted a pair of All-Americans on the offensive side of the ball.

Stepp got his coaching start as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Division II North Greenville in 2008. He also served as wide receivers and strength coach at Fort Mill (S.C.) High School in 2007.

Stepp was a standout wide receiver and punt returner at Furman from 2003-06. He earned All-SoCon recognition as a junior and senior and finished his playing career with 1,568 yards, 10 touchdown catches and 118 receptions, good for No. 4 on the school's career list at the time.

JAMIL WALKER

JAMIL WALKER

Director of Strength & Conditioning Coach

Walker joins the Razorbacks from Georgia, where he was the associate strength and conditioning coach for the Bulldogs since 2017.

Prior to Georgia, he was an assistant football strength and conditioning coach at Wisconsin. The former Badger remained at his alma mater as an intern in the strength and conditioning program in 2008 and became an assistant coach during the spring of 2009.

At the time of his graduation, Walker was part of the winningest senior class in Wisconsin history, going 40-11 over his four-year playing career. Walker and the Badgers won the 2006 Capital One Bowl and followed that with a 12-1 record during the 2006 season and another win in the 2007 Capital One Bowl.

Walker graduated from UW with a bachelor's degree in 2008 and is certified through the CSCCA and USAW.

He is originally from Rolling Meadows, Illinois and has a son Julian.

ED ELLIS

ED ELLIS

Senior Associate Director of Strength & Conditioning

Ed Ellis rejoins the Razorbacks after spending the previous four seasons at Georgia as the senior associate director of strength and conditioning.

Ellis enters into his 34th year in the field in 2020 including 25 years as a head strength and conditioning coach with stops at Central Florida, Georgia Tech, Wake Forest, Illinois State, Ole Miss and Arkansas. Ellis has worked with teams that have appeared in 14 bowl games.

In May of 2003, Ellis was awarded the highest honor in his field of expertise when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach (MSCC). The title of master strength and conditioning coach represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise as well as longevity in the field. He is also CPR/AED certified. He serves on the Board of Directors for the CSCCA.

At UCF, Ellis worked directly with the football program while overseeing the strength, speed and conditioning efforts for UCF's 16 sport athletics program. During his time at UCF, the Knights recorded four 10-win seasons including 12-1 in 2013 and 2014 Fiesta Bowl victory over Baylor.

Ellis spent time in the same capacity at Georgia Tech from 2001-04. While head strength and conditioning coach at Wake Forest from 1994-2001, Ellis was named the 2000 Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year for the Atlantic Coast Conference by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Prior to his stretch at Wake Forest, Ellis spent four years, from 1991-94, as head strength and conditioning coordinator at Illinois State and two years (1989-91) as an assistant strength coach at Ole Miss. He began his career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas from 1987-89.

Ellis earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Alabama in 1987 and received a master's degree in education from Arkansas in 1989.

He is married to the former Dyann Edmondston of Medford, New York. The couple have two daughters, Jessica and Nicole, and two sons, Eric and Brian.

AT FLORIDA

2019 (REDSHIRT JUNIOR): Appeared in three games as a redshirt-junior in 2019, seeing action against Miami (Aug. 24), UT Martin (Sept. 7) and Kentucky (Sept. 14) ... Threw for 698 yards and five touchdowns, rushing for 68 yards and a score over the three games ... Went 17-for-27 in the season opener against Miami, throwing for 254 yards and two TDs, also ran for a score on eight yards ... Put together a strong showing against Tennessee-Martin, racking up 270 yards and two touchdowns through the air on 25-of-27 passing, while also running for 37 yards ... Also played in the SEC opener at Kentucky, going 12-for-17 for 174 yards and a TD, with 23 rushing yards.

2018 (REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE): Played in and started all 13 games at quarterback, throwing for 2,457 yards with 24 touchdowns and six interceptions on the season ... Totaled 350 rushing yards on 110 carries and a team-high tying seven rushing touchdowns ... Led the Gators to a 10-3 record and No. 6 final ranking in the USA Today Coaches' Poll ... Became the first Gators quarterback since John Brantley in 2010 to start every game throughout the entire season ... Finished the season with 31 touchdowns accounted for, tied with Chris Leak's 2004 season for the seventh-highest single-season total in school history ... His seven rushing touchdowns left him one shy of tying Tim Tebow (2006) and Jimmy Fisher (1979) for the sixth-most rushing touchdowns by a Gators quarterback in a single season ... Ranked tied for 32nd nationally with 24 touchdown passes, which was also the highest single-season total by a UF quarterback since Tebow threw 30 in 2008 ... Finished the season tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio ... Among players with 315-plus attempts, he tied for 14th ... Since the start of 1996, Tebow (7.50 - 2008; 5.33 - 2007; 4.20 - 2009) is the only Gator with a better touchdown-interception ratio than Franks' 4.00 (24 to 6) in 2018 ... One of 12 FBS quarterbacks to throw more than 20 touchdowns and less than seven interceptions ... Became the fourth Gators QB since 1996 to accomplish that aforementioned feat, and Franks had the second-most attempts (322) in that bundle, only trailing Tebow's 2007 season (350) ... Registered the highest passing yardage total since Tebow threw for 2,895 yards in 2009 ... His four games of three-plus touchdown passes were the most such games since Tebow had four in 2008, and they were just one shy of UF quarterbacks' combined total from the 50 games spanning 2014-17 ... His six 200-yard passing games are the most since Tebow's seven in 2009 ... Capped his season with Offensive MVP honors in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, as he joined Tebow as the only other Gators quarterback since the start of the 2000 season to record a passing touchdown and rushing touchdown in a bowl game ... Ended the 2018 season on a streak of 135 pass attempts without an interception (last INT vs. Georgia in 1st Quarter), which ranks as the fourth-longest streak in UF history.

2017 (REDSHIRT FRESHMAN): Played in all 11 games and made eight starts at quarterback, throwing for 1,438 yards with nine touchdowns and eight interceptions on the season ... Became the first redshirt freshman to start a season opener at QB for the Gators since Kyle Morris in 1988 ... Recorded 212 yards passing (19-for-28) with two touchdowns and one interception against Tennessee ... UF defeated UT with a 63-yard touchdown pass from Franks to Tyrie Cleveland on the final play of the game ... That play marked the only time in school history that the Gators defeated an opponent with a touchdown on the final play of regulation ... Antonio Callaway's catch-and-run from Will Grier against the Vols in 2015, which was also a 63-yard pass play, gave the Gators' a 28-27 victory that season ... Florida ran the exact same play, "Train Ride Open, Big Bend In." on both occasions ... Recorded a 79-yard rush in the third quarter against Texas A&M on Oct. 14, which is the longest run by a UF quarterback in school history ... Combined with Malik Zaire to throw for 256 passing yards at Missouri on Nov. 4, which was a season-high for the Gators ... In addition, that contest marked the first time that UF threw for at least 250 yards against an SEC opponent since Dec. 3, 2016 (2016 SEC Championship, Alabama) ... Became just the second UF quarterback since 2012 to start at least eight games in a season ... Totaled a 3-5 record as a starter.

2016 (FRESHMAN): Did not appear in a game and redshirted.

PRIOR TO FLORIDA: Participated in the 2016 US Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio, Texas ... 2015 Elite 11 Finalist (was on the final squad of eleven and was the first invited to the competition) ... Participated in Nike's The Opening 2015 in Beaverton, Oregon ... Named Class 5A Second Team All-State as both a junior and senior ... Led his team to a 13-2 record as a senior and reached the Class 5A State Championship Game ... Senior Season: Threw for 2766 yards with 35 touchdowns; also had 28 carries for 245 yards and four touchdowns, was the kicker for all kickoffs and field goals, along with most extra points and punts, made 90% (43-47) of his extra points and four of seven field goals, including a long of 47 yards, his longest punt was 68 yards and 44 of his 74 kickoffs were touchbacks ... Junior Season: Threw for 2249 yards with 28 touchdowns; also had 28 carries for 425 yards and three touchdowns, was the kicker and punter as well, having 60 of his 74 kickoffs be touchbacks, seven of his 22 punts be inside the 20, 46 of 50 PAT attempts made, and six for seven on field goals with a long of 39 yards ... Sophomore Season: Threw for 1842 yards with 18 touchdowns; also ran four times for 36 yards and a touchdown, handled most of the team's kicking and punting duties, with nine of his 24 punts being touchbacks, 23 of his 31 extra points being made, and four of five of his field goals being made with a long of 33 yards ... Played for Coach Barry Klees ... Brother, Jordan, played wide receiver and signed with UCF in 2014 ... Also played baseball in high school.

2019 MLB DRAFT: Franks was selected by the Boston Red Sox with the 947th pick in the 31st round of the 2019 MLB Amateur Draft ... "I'm flattered that the Red Sox picked me this afternoon," Franks said on June 5, 2019 following his selection. "However, I'm living out my dream being the quarterback of the Florida Gators. We're all working extremely hard this offseason and I cannot wait to hit the field this fall." ... Franks hasn't played baseball since his junior year of high school because he graduated in Dec. 2015 and early enrolled at Florida, was rated as the No. 500 overall baseball prospect in the country by Perfect Game in the spring of 2016 ... In addition, Franks was rated as the No. 117 overall player in the state of Florida and the No. 41 right-handed pitcher nationally ... Franks was the first UF quarterback selected in the MLB Amateur Draft since Jeff Driskel was selected in the 29th round by the Red Sox in 2013.

1964 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his 1964 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time – The Associated Press and the United Press International – did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion – The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation – named Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

BILLY RAY SMITH SR. earned first-team All-Southwest Conference honors in 1956.

BILLY RAY SMITH JR. made the All-SWC first team in 1981 and 1982.

LAMAR McHAN, who led the SWC in passing in 1953, was a three-time All-Southwest Conference selection from 1951-53.

RETIRED NUMBERS

ARKANSAS FOOTBALL

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 122 years the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott (No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) have worn numbers no future Razorback will ever wear.

12

CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT

(1946-49)

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success didn't come until 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career. Scott passed away in Little Rock, Arkansas, on Jan. 30, 2018 at the age of 93.

BRANDON BURLSWORTH

The athletics department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but tragically died in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletics director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 seasons | 1908-12
29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season. In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season – a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

E.T. PICKERING

11-7

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed more than a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player; Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

T.T. McCONNELL

2 seasons | 1915-16
8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi State.

NORMAN PAINE

2 seasons | 1917-18
8-3-1

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history – a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

Although J.B. Craig's only season included a lopsided 63-7 loss to Tulsa (then known as Henry Kendall), it concluded with a 7-6 win over Oklahoma in the Razorbacks' most recent home meeting with the Sooners. The win avenged the 103-0 loss in Norman, Okla., the year before.

G.W. MCLAREN

8-5-3

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shut out SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0 conference mark.

FRED THOMSEN

56-61-10

Still the second-longest tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 season | 1942
3-7

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

JOHN BARNHILL

22-17-3

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

OTIS DOUGLAS

3 seasons | 1950-52
9-21

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and Lewis Carpenter, the Razorbacks managed just nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 – the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT

11-10

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES

144-58-5

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution. He served as athletic director from 1973-2007. With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

HOUSTON NUTT

75-49

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

BOBBY PETRINO

34-17

Bobby Petrino was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on Dec. 11, 2007. In just his third season, he led Arkansas to the first BCS game in school history against Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In his final season, he took the Razorbacks to a school-record-tying 11 wins and the first top-five AP finish since 1977.

BRET BIELEMA

29-34

Named the 32nd head coach in program history in December of 2012, Bielema came to Arkansas after having spent seven years as head coach at Wisconsin. He led Arkansas to three straight bowl appearances, highlighted by wins over Texas at the 2014 Texas Bowl and Kansas State at the 2016 Liberty Bowl. In 2014, Arkansas became the first unranked team in college football history to post back-to-back shutouts over ranked opponents after blanking No. 20 LSU and No. 8 Ole Miss.

CHAD MORRIS

4-18

Chad Morris was named the 33rd head football in University of Arkansas history on Dec. 6, 2017. Under Morris' fast-paced, no-huddle spread attack from 2010-14, Clemson shattered 127 offensive records (89 individual; 38 team). During his three seasons at SMU (2015-17), Morris turned a 1-11 program before he took over to the program's first bowl bid since 2012 in 2017.

OVERTIME GAMES

ARKANSAS' NCAA RECORDS SET IN OVERTIME

- Longest games in NCAA history: seven overtimes (Arkansas at Kentucky, 2003; Arkansas at Ole Miss, 2001; North Texas at FIU, 2006; and LSU at Texas A&M, 2018)
- Fourth-longest game in NCAA history: six overtimes (Arkansas at Tennessee, 2002)
- Most points scored in overtime: 47 at Kentucky, 2003
- Most points scored in overtime (both teams): 86, UA at Kentucky, 2003
- Second-most points scored in an overtime game (both teams): 134, UA at Kentucky, 2003

On one of the most memorable plays in recent program history, HUNTER HENRY helped Arkansas convert a first down on 4th-and-25 in overtime at Ole Miss in 2015. The Razorbacks scored two plays later and won the game with a two-point conversion.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS) will serve as the home of Razorback Football for the 82nd season during the 2019 campaign. Since opening in 1938, the Razorbacks have played 294 games at the current site, winning more than 64 percent of their contests.

Located on the western side of campus, DWRRS was formerly known as Razorback Stadium before being renamed in 2001 in honor of the late Donald W. Reynolds. The playing field is named in honor of former athletics director and the winningest, longest-tenured head football coach in University of Arkansas history, Frank Broyles.

Upon undergoing many modifications, DWRRS gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation. A $160 million stadium renovation and north end addition was completed prior to the 2018 season. All existing suites and club areas were renovated, and additional elevators were constructed in the northwest and northeast corners of the stadium. As part of the same project, a south video board was added in time for the 2017 season. The north end addition is home to the new Broyles Athletics Center as well as suites, loge boxes, club seats and club areas. The addition also provided new concessions and restrooms as well as a stadium-wide concourse that allows the flow of fans throughout the stadium. A new football team locker room, press conference room, other team areas and various displays celebrating Razorback history and traditions were also part of the north end addition.

Prior to the 2001 season, the stadium underwent a dramatic advancement – a $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, increased the seating capacity from 51,000 to 72,000.

The renovation included reconstructed concourses with a brick facade that completely enclosed the concrete and steel below the stands. In addition, the concourses were widened, and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

Known as "Championship Alley," the east concourse displays all 13 conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse, "All-American Alley," is dedicated to the 57 Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse, "Bowl Alley," commemorates each of the program's 42 bowl teams.

Another noticeable addition was the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chair back seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats as well as a food court with vendor space.

Along with an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, 68 luxury suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 134.

The 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews A Club was added on the east side next to a 6,500-seat upper deck that is complemented by enclosed premium club seating. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

One of the first expansion projects occurred in 1950 and included the construction of a new press box and 5,200 more seats on the west side. Another 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957.

Earlier building efforts in 1965 and 1969 raised capacity to 42,678 – a figure held steady for more than a decade.

Prior to 2001, the last previous expansion occurred before the 1985 season and added additional seats and skyboxes, bringing the facility to 50,000 seats.

Astroturf was added in 1969. The playing surface then returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to its transition to synthetic turf in 2009.

Making its debut on Sept. 24, 1938, as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7, the stadium was dedicated later that year on Oct. 8 when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.

FRANK BROYLES

For more than five decades, Frank Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state.

In July 2014, Broyles stepped away from his day-to-day duties with the Razorback Foundation after a combined 55 years of service with the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Razorback Foundation. Broyles served as Athletics Director Emeritus.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletics director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an all sport program that produced 41 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments under his tenure.

On Nov. 3, 2007, Frank Broyles Field, the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, was named for the longtime head football coach and athletics director. The field was dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game in an on-field ceremony that included Broyles once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A" and a surprise visit from broadcasting legend and Broyles' former ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

On Nov. 23, 2013, a bronze statue was dedicated in Broyles honor in front of the Broyles Athletic Center. The statue, sculpted by Dr. Gary Renegar, stands seven and a half feet and weighs more than 700 pounds.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 71 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field will host Arkansas football games through 2024. The Razorbacks will play three regular-season SEC games at War Memorial Stadium during the tenure of the agreement. Arkansas will play the University of Missouri in an SEC game at War Memorial Stadium during the 2019, 2021 and 2023 seasons, unless SEC scheduling necessitates playing another opponent.

Three-year Arkansas letterman and Medal of Honor recipient Maurice (Footsie) Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 54,120.

A complete lighting system and Astroturf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new $7.5 million press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission, along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department, has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.

AT&T STADIUM

In 2008, Arkansas and Texas A&M officials agreed to enter into an agreement with AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys in Arlington, Texas, to renew its long-time storied rivalry under the name “Southwest Classic.”

After a 16-year absence, the 2009 season marked the return of the rivalry between the former Southwest Conference foes. This time, the Razorbacks and Aggies clashed in a non-conference showdown where Arkansas claimed a 47-19 victory. The matchup followed suit in 2010 and 2011, both resulting in Razorback victories.

Due to scheduling conflicts associated with the Aggies’ move to the SEC in 2012, the schools were forced to alternate home venues for the 2012 and 2013 contests; however, the contest returned to Arlington in 2014 and kicked off the first game of an 11-year agreement.

Arkansas leads the all-time series versus the Aggies, 41-30-3.

One of the most expensive sports venues ever built, AT&T Stadium was completed in 2009 and is fourth-largest in capacity in the NFL. Capacity can expand to seat upwards of 85,000 people. The $1.15 billion project was spearheaded by Dallas Cowboys owner and former co-captain of the Arkansas 1964 national championship team, Jerry Jones.

Containing the world’s largest column-free interior and the fourth largest high definition video screen, which hangs from 20-yard line to 20-yard line, the facility also serves as a multi-purpose venue for concerts and other college and high school athletic events.

FRED W. SMITH FOOTBALL CENTER

The 80,000 square-foot Fred W. Smith Football Center opened in 2013 and includes a spacious locker room, team meeting rooms, training room, equipment room, a student-athlete lounge and study area, coaches' offices, a recruiting reception area and football displays celebrating the tradition of Razorback Football. In the fall of 2012 as part of the football center project, two new practice fields and a parking deck were completed south of the Walker Family Training Center providing the football team with spectacular new practice venues and university faculty and students with approximately 225 covered parking spaces.

Fred W. Smith, former chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime benefactor of the University of Arkansas and Razorback Athletics, passed away at age 84 on April 29 in Santa Monica, California. Through his work with the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, Mr. Smith was instrumental in the university's securement of several multi-million-dollar gifts, including the Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium expansion, the Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center and the Student-Athlete Development program, within Razorback Athletics.

In 2011, under Mr. Smith's leadership, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation issued a $10 million challenge grant to help generate funding for a new football operations building for the University of Arkansas. In 2013, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center was dedicated providing Razorback Football with a new home.

JONES FAMILY STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

The Jerry and Gene Jones Family Student-Athlete Success Center helps address the academic, nutritional, personal and professional development of more than 460 student-athletes in an approximately 55,000 square foot facility, creating an integrated academic support program focused on graduation of all student-athletes at the University of Arkansas.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the Arkansas Communications Office. University of Arkansas football student-athletes are generally available for interviews during a game week. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to direct all interview requests to the Arkansas Communications Office. Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Please consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for practice information regarding times, days and accessibility. Following select practice sessions, select members of the coaching staff and/or student-athletes will be available for group interviews with the media. All media members, including video and still photographers, from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the Arkansas Communications Office for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the Arkansas Communications Office for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Pittman and student-athletes.

SEC WEEKLY COACHES' TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, head coach Sam Pittman will participate each week in the league's teleconference of football coaches. The teleconferences will be conducted each Wednesday from Sept. 2 to Nov. 25 from 10 a.m. CT to 12:10 p.m. CT. Accredited media members only may access the broadcast-quality teleconference. Callers may participate in the question-and-answer session with an individual coach or all SEC coaches. For more information and the teleconference number, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3000.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least 10 days in advance.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see media credentialing guidelines online at SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The Arkansas Communications Office reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning three hours prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Photo identification is required when picking up credentials.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville and Little Rock for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

LIVE STATS

Live in-game stats will be provided for the media at RazorbackStats.com.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Information for accessing the network is available in the press box.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and Learfield IMG College are in their 13th year of a powerful partnership that created Razorback Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties (RSP) is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, RSP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. They continue to expand the coverage of the Razorback Sports Network. This statewide radio network, consisting of 45-plus affiliates, covers all of Arkansas and parts of all six surrounding states.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held weekly at the Catfish Hole and is aired live on the Razorback Sports Network. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and regionally throughout the week during football season.

CHUCK BARRETT – PLAY-BY-PLAY

Barrett is entering his 14th season as the play-by-play announcer for the Razorbacks, and he's no stranger to Arkansas fans or the Razorback Sports Network broadcast team. This is his 26th year on the broadcast crew, including spending 14 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities in the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pregame show, halftime and scoreboard shows, and the football version of the Razorback Report. He has also worked as the play-by-play man for baseball from 1992 to 2014 and added men's basketball play-by-play to his duties prior to the 2010-11 season. Barrett was recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the 2007, 2008 and 2009 Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year.

QUINN GROVEY – ANALYST

Grovey is entering his 23rd overall season on the network, including his third as the analyst. The former Hog quarterback previously served as co-host of the pregame and postgame shows and the network's sideline reporter. A three-year starter for the Razorbacks, Grovey led Arkansas to Southwest Conference titles in 1988 and 1989, and was named to the program's 1980s All-Century team.

GENO BELL – CO-HOST & SIDELINE

Bell is entering his fourth season on the broadcast team as a sideline reporter, taking over the role from Grovey. Bell was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Razorbacks from 1993-95. He totaled 185 tackles, including 28 for loss, 11 sacks, four pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. Following his collegiate career, Bell played in the NFL with the New York Jets and the Cleveland Browns. He returned to Arkansas after his playing career and is a senior director of transportation at the worldwide headquarters of Walmart in Bentonville.

RICK SCHAEFFER – CO-HOST

Schaeffer is entering his 27th year with Razorback football. He was the analyst for 10 seasons and is now a co-host for the pregame, halftime and postgame shows. Schaeffer worked in the Arkansas Sports Information Department for 24 years, 21 of those years serving as director. Rick is the communications director for the Springdale School District and the co-host of Drive Time Sports on 103.7 The Buzz.

VICE CHANCELLOR AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS HUNTER YURACHEK

Entering his third full year as vice chancellor and director of athletics at the University of Arkansas, Hunter Yurachek has made the most of his time since Chancellor Joseph Steinmetz announced him as vice chancellor and director of athletics on Dec. 4, 2017.

Yurachek has implemented a program wide strategic plan that focuses on fostering student-athlete success and centered on achieving the program's mission of building Champions and Razorbacks for Life. Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Razorback student-athletes, coaches, administrators, Razorback Foundation members and fans, results are being realized on and off the field.

Even in an abbreviated 2019-20 competition schedule, Razorback Athletics built an impressive resume, including accomplishing a couple of program milestones. Arkansas won its first NCAA championship in women's cross country and its first SEC title in soccer. In addition, the Razorbacks earned SEC championships in women's cross country and men's and women's indoor track and field. Razorback student-athletes followed suit in the classroom, earning a 3.24 cumulative GPA with 107 student-athletes adding their names to Senior Walk as University of Arkansas graduates. The 3.43 term GPA for the spring semester was a program record and marked the 21st consecutive semester for a department GPA of 3.0 or better.

Razorback Athletics was also at the forefront of several key initiatives in 2019-20. Yurachek was named to the Governor's Economic Recovery Task Force, to help guide state reopening in the wake of COVID-19. Yurachek was also added to the NCAA Football Competition Committee. In October, Nolan Richardson Court was dedicated at Bud Walton Arena. The Eddie Sutton Men's Basketball Practice Gymnasium was created at the Basketball Performance Center. Construction continues on a number of facility projects including the J.B. and Johnelle Hunt Family Baseball Development Center, Frank O'Mara Track Performance Center and a renovation of the Randal Tyson Track Center.

In 2018-19, Arkansas finished No. 23 in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, including finishing first among programs with 19 or fewer teams. Arkansas captured two NCAA team championships (women's indoor and outdoor track and field), four SEC team championships (women's cross country, women's indoor and outdoor track and field, men's golf) and four SEC team runner-up finishes (soccer, men's cross country, men's indoor track and field and women's basketball).

In addition, the Razorback Baseball team won a share of the SEC Western Division title and advanced to its second straight College World Series. A total of 14 programs were nationally ranked during 2018-19, including five in the top 10. Arkansas had four NCAA individual and 22 SEC individual champions.

Razorback student-athletes continued to achieve at a high level in the classroom, posting a cumulative GPA of 3.24. The program graduated 98% of student-athletes who exhausted their athletic eligibility.

In 2018-19, Arkansas hosted its first NCAA Men's and Women's Golf Championships at Blessings Golf Club. In addition, Arkansas was home to the 2019 SEC Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Championships as well as both an NCAA Baseball Regional and Super Regional at Baum-Walker Stadium.

Yurachek launched several initiatives to further engage Arkansas and Razorback fans around the world. In August 2018, as part of the One Razorback campaign, the inaugural One Hog Call event was held in Fayetteville, Little Rock and around the globe. Razorback fans from more than 16 countries and 40 states participated in a simultaneous Hog Call.

Yurachek's first full year in Fayetteville saw tremendous success. Arkansas tied a program record with a No. 16 finish in the 2017-18 Learfield Sports Directors Cup, and first in the nation among schools with 19 or fewer sports.

In 2017-18, Arkansas captured four SEC championships (men's and women's cross country, women's indoor track, women's golf), including the school's first SEC crown in women's golf. The Razorbacks earned three top-five national finishes including national championship runner-up finishes at the 2018 NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships and the 2018 College World Series. Four Arkansas student-athletes earned individual national championships.

In the 2018 spring semester, Razorback student-athletes earned a record-tying 3.25 GPA and 282 student-athletes secured a spot on the department honor roll. Nearly 125 Razorback student-athletes added their name to Senior Walk as graduates of the University of Arkansas.

Yurachek came to Arkansas from the University of Houston where he served as the vice president for athletics. Prior to Houston, Yurachek served as director of athletics at Coastal Carolina University, where Coastal won 29 Big South Conference championships. Yurachek was named Under Armour FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014. He has also worked at the University of Akron, the University of Virginia, Western Carolina University, Vanderbilt University and Wake Forest University.

In Yurachek's first two years at Houston, the Cougars' sport programs eclipsed 225 points in the Learfield Directors' Cup in back-to-back years for the first time in department history, securing top-three finishes in The American Athletic Conference both years. The Cougars improved to second in 2016-17 after finishing third in 2015-16. Houston's programs combined for a league-leading five American Conference team championships and 22 American Conference individual titles.

The success was not limited to the field of play, however, as UH student-athletes opened the fall semester with a record 96 student-athletes on the Dean's List. That record was short lived as 109 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the spring semester. Houston student-athletes combined for the highest spring GPA (2.95), highest cumulative GPA following a spring semester (2.93) and the highest average hours passed in a spring semester (14.1) in department history.

The 2016-17 year also saw the continuation of an aggressive facilities plan as construction began on the $60 million renovation of the Fertitta Center, the football indoor practice facility and a baseball player development center and clubhouse with more than $85 million of projects all privately funded.

In his first year in the role, Houston recorded its highest finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 1999-2000 and its second-highest finish in school history with 296.5 points to finish 73rd nationally. The 2015-16 academic year saw the Houston Football program capture The American Athletic Conference Championship and a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Florida

State, the Houston Men's Track & Field program win The American Indoor and Outdoor Championships and the Houston Women's Golf program claim an American Championship in only its second year with a full team. In addition, the Men's Basketball program returned to the NCAA postseason for the 29th time in program history and the Men's Golf program advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third straight year.

All of the athletic achievements occurred while UH student-athletes recorded the second-best fall GPA, 2.91, and second-best spring GPA, 2.87, in athletic department history while placing a record 88 student-athletes on the University's Dean's Honor List in the spring.

Yurachek led the Houston Athletics fundraising charge with a record amount $5.2 million in private donations to the Athletics general scholarship fund in the 2014-15 fiscal year. Focused on improving the student-athlete experience, Yurachek also led a department that unveiled the completed Guy V. Lewis Development Center for the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs, Carolyn and Ron Yokubaitis Field at Carl Lewis International Track & Field Complex, one of the nation's largest collegiate baseball video boards, a renovated Houston Football locker room and a short game facility for the Houston Men's and Women's Golf programs.

Named by Chancellor Dr. Renu Khator as Chair for a campus-wide steering committee established to oversee the grand opening events for the $128 million TDECU Stadium, Yurachek assisted in the cultivation, solicitation and securing of a 10-year, $15 million-naming rights agreement for TDECU Stadium with the per year value ranking in the top ten nationally for collegiate venue naming rights agreements.

Yurachek was instrumental in the national search and hiring of football and men and women's basketball head coaches (Tom Herman, Kelvin Sampson, Ronald Hughey) while overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 remodeling project to the men and women's basketball locker rooms.

He served as liaison with an architectural design firm on the plans for the $25-million Guy V. Lewis Development Center as well as overseeing the development and implementation of a $500,000 facility enhancement to the Athletics/Alumni Center, including the addition of Cougar Cafe, a student-athlete nutrition center.

Yurachek came to Houston after serving four years as Director of Athletics at Coastal Carolina University where he oversaw a department featuring 18 men's and women's NCAA Division I sport programs.

Under Yurachek's leadership, the Chanticleers made 30 NCAA appearances and finished a program-best 79th in the 2012-13 Learfield Director's Cup.

During Yurachek's time of leadership, Coastal hosted an NCAA Baseball Regional; NCAA Baseball Super Regional; NCAA Division I Football championship contests in 2010 and '13; and NCAA Men's Soccer Championship matches in 2011, '12 and '13, as well as winning a competitive bid to host the VisitMyrtleBeach.com Men's and Women's Big South Basketball Championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015, sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce.

Coastal Carolina student-athletes posted a 3.028 grade point average (GPA) for the fall 2013 semester and saw its overall GPA rise from 3.053 to 3.108. Of the 434 student-athletes, 253 - or 58.3 percent - posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, including 28 who earned President's List (4.0 GPA for the semester) and an additional 117 who earned Dean's List recognition. Further breakdown shows that 125 of the 175 women student-athletes (71.4 percent) posted a GPA between 4.0 and 3.0, while 128 of the 259 men (49.4 percent) accomplished the feat.

In addition, during Yurachek's tenure Coastal Carolina student-athletes earned:

- 363 All-Big South honors
- 31 All-Big South Player of the Year honors along with 13 Big South Freshman of the Year honors
- 28 All-America honors
- 11 Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in their respective sports

- 5 Academic All-America honors
- 4 national postgraduate scholarships
- 3 Big South Conference Christenberry Awards for Academic Excellence

With all the success, the Coastal Carolina department operated within a balanced budget during Yurachek's tenure, thanks to his zero-budget initiative and the unprecedented revenues generated with his restructuring of the external relations department. In his first year, the department revenue was at $560,000, including $316,000 in ticket sales and sponsorships at $250,000. After the 2012-13 year, revenue came in at $1.4 million, thanks to $549,000 in ticket sales and $600,000 in sponsorships.

During his time at Coastal, the Department of Athletics added women's lacrosse; launched Champions for Life, a life skills enhancement program for student-athletes; signed a five-year $1.1 million contract with an athletic apparel provider; established the Letterwinners Association; successfully completed NCAA Cycle 3 Recertification; and has been featured on the front page of the sports section of USA Today with the headline reading "Coastal Carolina Piles up Sports Success."

Also, during Yurachek's tenure, several major projects that supported intercollegiate athletics totaling more than $250 million were included in the University's ongoing capital improvements across the campus.

The HTC Center opened in 2012 and is the home for Coastal Carolina's men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball programs - as well as the three-year home to the Big South Men's and Women's Basketball Championships. In addition, Adkins Field House, the Boni Belle Baseball/Softball Hitting & Practice Facility, the Will Garland Academic Enhancement Center and the Richard M. Ward MD Sports Performance Center were completed and dedicated while the $10.2 million Baseball/Softball complex was completed in 2014. Yurachek also secured a 12-court tennis facility and a student-athlete training table facility.

Prior to his appointment at Coastal Carolina University, Yurachek was executive senior associate athletics director at the University of Akron. He led and managed the Zips' external relations unit, which included marketing and promotions, media relations, ticket operations, development (Z-Fund), video operations and merchandising. In addition, he was the sport administrator for men's basketball, men's and women's golf and worked closely with the football program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business management at Guilford College in 1990, where he was a four-year letter winner in basketball. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from the University of Richmond in 1994.

Born in Richmond, Va., and raised in Charlotte, N.C., Yurachek, and his wife Jennifer have three sons: Ryan, Jake and Brooks. Ryan is a former Marshall University football student-athlete and is a graduate assistant on the Razorback Football staff. Jake is a redshirt-sophomore football student-athlete at the University of Arkansas. Brooks is a sophomore at Fayetteville High School and is a member of the football and boy's basketball teams.

FROM CHANCELLOR STEINMETZ

Welcome to another exciting season of football - I hope! At the time of this writing, much is still uncertain. We still do not know if the football season will be delayed, shortened or cancelled; nor do we know if Razorback games will be played for full, partial or limited audiences. What we do know is that the health and safety of our student-athletes comes first, as well as the health and safety of Razorback fans. As such, we are proceeding with an abundance of caution while planning and plotting out scenarios for the coming year.

Like you, I will be greatly disappointed if we cannot hold sporting events - or must cut the season short. Our athletic teams are a source of tremendous pride for the entire Razorback nation, and they remind us of the importance of teamwork, discipline and commitment to a common goal. Nothing brings our campus community, and state, together like Razorback victories. So I will be disappointed for our fans, our campus community, and especially our student athletes if they are not able to compete this year. They've worked hard and put in long hours to earn the right to win as Razorbacks.

But, for now, we take our directions from COVID-19. Until a vaccine is developed and widely available, we must error on the side of caution. The good news is if you're reading this, then something is probably happening. You may even be reading this in Donald W. Reynolds Stadium at partial capacity. If so, I hope you are cheering twice as loud.

Finally, it bears mentioning that Razorback Athletics is one of the nation's few financially self-sustaining athletics programs and does not receive state funding or student fees. Your great fan support, combined with the careful management of resources, allows the department to be self-sustaining. So on behalf of the University of Arkansas, thank you for your ongoing and ardent support through these unusual times.

Go Hogs and stay safe!
Joe Steinmetz, Chancellor

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP

JOSEPH E. STEINMETZ CHANCELLOR

Joseph E. Steinmetz became the sixth chancellor of the University of Arkansas on Jan. 1, 2016. As chief executive officer, Dr. Steinmetz oversaw the establishment of the university's 8 Guiding Priorities, which have led to new programs and initiatives like the Advance Arkansas scholarship program to improve access for underrepresented students and the Chancellor's Discovery and Innovation Fund, as well as major investments in research and commercialization. More recently, he announced ten action items that would help distinguish the University as it looked to 2020 and beyond.

During his tenure, the university has received several significant gifts, including a $120 million gift from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation to establish a School of Art, as well as $194.7 million grant from the same foundation to establish the Institute for Integrative and Innovative Research (I3R). Steinmetz has also led efforts to construct a 71,000 square foot student success center, which is currently under construction in the heart of campus. He continues to meet with a broad range of stakeholders across the state to advocate for public education and to learn how they can work together for the common goal of strengthening the flagship.

A nationally respected behavioral neuroscientist, Dr. Steinmetz was recognized in 1996 by the National Academy of Sciences for his contributions to the fields of experimental psychology and neuroscience. In 2012 he was named an AAAS Fellow. Prior to his appointment as chancellor, he was Ohio State's chief academic officer. As executive vice president and provost, he oversaw the administration, coordination, and development of all academic functions of the university.

Dr. Steinmetz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at Central Michigan University and his doctorate at Ohio University. He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons and five grandchildren.

GERALD JORDAN FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Gerald Jordan, associate professor of journalism, worked 25 years for metropolitan daily newspapers before he joined the UofA faculty in 1995. His 2017 appointment as Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) marks a return to his student journalism days when he was sports editor of the Arkansas Traveler and covered the Razorbacks.

Like his predecessor Dr. Sharon Hunt, Jordan is an Arkansas alumnus and he becomes only the fourth UofA faculty member to fill this position. Chancellor Joe Steinmetz appointed Jordan to take on the responsibility to certify the eligibility of student-athletes and serve as the university's representative to the NCAA and the Southeastern Conference.

Jordan graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1970 with a degree in journalism and earned his master's degree in journalism at Northwestern University in 1971. He is a 1982 Nieman Fellow at Harvard University.

Jordan began his career as a sports reporter for The Kansas City Star, where he subsequently wrote editorials and was a TV columnist. He wrote editorials for The Boston Globe. At The Philadelphia Inquirer, Jordan was a reporter, a Washington correspondent and worked as an editor in several departments before joining the journalism faculty.

He returned to The Inquirer as an editor for 15 summers. He also worked two summers on News21, a national investigative journalism project at the Walter Cronkite School, Arizona State University. Jordan has been an innovative teacher, developing the Digital Media Lab, a semester block of journalism courses designed to provide intensive teaching and training for a limited number of students in a realistic multimedia news environment. He also helped create the Lemke Journalism Project, which has brought minority high school students interested in journalism to the university for the past 17 years.

Jordan served as president of the Arkansas Alumni Association Board of Directors, and he is the founding leader of two alumni societies for UofA graduates.

He received the UofA's Silas Hunt Legacy Award in 2010, and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Northwest Arkansas Martin Luther King Jr. Planning Committee.

Jordan was also the first faculty member to receive the university's national award as Volunteer of the Year.

He has been honored by Associated Student Government and the Student Alumni Board as Teacher of the Year and nominated an additional three times.

Jordan was presented the Faculty Gold Medal Award in 2013 by the UofA's State and National Awards committee.

The Arkansas Press Association presented Jordan with its 2016 Distinguished Service Award.

In 2017, the American Society of News Editors and the Association of Opinion Journalists presented Jordan with the Barry Bingham Sr. Fellowship for his career-long work to increase newsroom diversity.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

GREG SANKEY COMMISSIONER, SEC

Greg Sankey became the eighth Commissioner of the Southeastern Conference on June 1, 2015, and immediately embarked on a journey to build upon the SEC's recognized success, strong foundations and rich traditions.

Sankey has successfully introduced change and advancement for the conference while respecting the institutional traditions that make the SEC unique. With an understanding of the highly competitive environment of college sports, he has fostered the collaborative culture of the SEC that sets the conference apart and supports its continuing success.

Sankey brings a big picture approach to his position through continuing focus on a vision that positions the SEC to leverage its athletics success and popularity for a greater overall cultural and economic impact on the region, the nation and the world.

Based upon conference-wide success and growth, the SEC was the only college conference named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's League of the Year Award in 2017-18, a nomination shared with the National Basketball Association (NBA), Major League Baseball (MLB), Ladies' Professional Golf Association (LPGA), National Hockey League (NHL) and Major League Soccer (MLS).

During his first major address as Commissioner, he introduced his concept of "Scholars. Champions. Leaders." to describe the ultimate potential of the SEC. "Educating scholars and supporting champions provides the platform for developing leaders who will influence the world," Sankey said in his opening remarks at SEC Football Media Days in 2015.

ADVOCATING FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITY

Now in his fifth year as Commissioner of the SEC, Sankey has established himself as an advocate for the student-athlete, creating a framework to provide young people in the Conference with challenging leadership opportunities and expanded resources to succeed at the highest levels of academic and competitive success. New student-athlete focused initiatives under Sankey's leadership include:

- Creation of a new position in the SEC office for a Director of Student-Athlete Engagement, a role focused on offering student-athletes the opportunity to participate in Conference leadership and prepare for life after their intercollegiate athletics participation concludes. (August 2015)
- Introduction of Student-Athlete Leadership Councils for Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball which, in addition to the Conference's longstanding Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, provide student-athletes with enhanced opportunities to engage with campus leaders and Conference office staff. (May 2016)
- Introduction of a Student-Athlete Career Tour during SEC Football Championship Week in Atlanta, which annually provides a group of student-athletes with opportunities to engage in career exploration with high level corporations and businesses. (December 2016, 2017, 2018)
- Expansion of the student-athlete role at the annual SEC Spring Meetings when student-athlete leaders participate in a robust agenda of interaction with administrators and coaches to provide their perspectives to Conference leaders. (May 2017, 2018, 2019)
- Increased funding for the SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Post-Graduate Scholarship, established in 1986 to honor outstanding student-athletes in the SEC for their accomplishments in athletics and academics. The value of the post-graduate scholarships increased to $20,000 each for the two winners and $10,000 each for the 26 finalists. (December 2017)

ADVANCING THE CONFERENCE

Sankey has been intentional and diligent in addressing issues critical to college athletics, with an emphasis on integrity, ethics and sportsmanship:

- Appointed a Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct to develop recommendations for updated Conference policies governing conduct expectations for student-athletes. As a result, the SEC adopted a serious misconduct policy governing transfers that has served as a model for similar policies subsequently adopted by other conferences and institutions (June 2016, expanded definition June 2017), and later expanded the policy to include all incoming prospective student-athletes. (June 2018)
- Appointed a Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement and Governance, designed to review and update principles which form the foundation of the Conference membership's commitment to SEC and NCAA rules compliance.
- Amended an SEC Bylaw to now require a university president or chancellor to consult directly with the SEC Commissioner before hiring someone "who has engaged in unethical conduct as defined under NCAA Bylaws or who has participated in activity that resulted, or may result, in a Level I, Level II, or major infraction." (June 2017)
- Appointed a Task Force on Sports Gambling to identify issues and solutions with the goal of working with other leaders in sports, both on the collegiate and professional level, as well as governmental leaders, to educate student-athletes on issues related to sports wagering and ensure the integrity of athletics events. (July 2018)

Sankey prioritized the enhancement of Conference championship events to meet the goal of providing student-athletes with life-long memories and exceptional experiences for fans, which has included:

- An agreement with Atlanta's new Mercedes Benz Stadium to serve as the long-term home for the SEC Football Championship Game. (September 2015)
- An agreement with the City of Hoover, AL, to continue as host of the SEC Baseball Tournament after the city committed to construction of a $70 million baseball campus to enhance the baseball tournament experience for student-athletes and fans. (June 2016)
- Engagement with a security consulting firm to review and develop consistent and effective security plans for SEC Championship events. (August 2016)
- A three-year agreement with Greenville, SC, to provide a multi-year home for the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament at Bon Secours Wellness Arena. (May 2018)

Sankey has focused resources on the development of Conference officiating with a series of measures blending technology with effective leadership to create greater accuracy and consistency for officiating in all sports, including:

- Hiring new coordinators of officials in the sports of men's basketball, women's basketball and softball.
- Working with the NCAA to gain approval for a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of football, which was implemented successfully beginning with the Fall 2016 season. (May 2016)
- Collaborating with the American Athletic and Atlantic Sun conferences to create a men's basketball officiating consortium, later adding the Sun Belt Conference. (July 2016, May 2017)
- Securing NCAA approval to implement a collaborative instant replay process in the sport of men's basketball

- beginning with the 2017-18 season. (May 2017)
- Engaging in a consulting agreement with Bob Delaney, an accomplished former NBA official and executive with extensive experience in leadership training, to assume the role of Special Advisor for Officiating Development and Performance. (August 2018)
- Working with the NCAA to expand the number of permissible plays evaluated through video replay in the sport of baseball for the 2018 season (August 2017), and implementing the first centralized replay system in the sport the following year. (March 2019)
- Commissioning Deloitte's Advisory practice to conduct a comprehensive analysis to identify best practices and program standards for the SEC Football Officiating Program. (January 2019)

Another priority under Sankey's leadership is growing exposure for the Conference and effectively publicizing success stories of the SEC. Strategies pursued to achieve this objective include:

- Engagement with The Richards Group, a renowned national marketing agency, to develop a comprehensive branding campaign. The theme - "It Just Means More" - communicates the history, legacy and overall positive impact the SEC has on its region, the nation and the world. (January 2016)
- Introduction of the SEC Graduate Patch, a logo placed on the uniforms of every sport displayed by SEC student-athletes who have earned their undergraduate degree and are continuing their participation in intercollegiate athletics. (October 2016)
- Ongoing collaboration with the SEC Network to create unique exposure opportunities for Conference universities, teams and student-athletes, including behind-the-scenes programming, expanding live championship coverage for Olympic Sports and other unique programming.
- An agreement with SiriusXM to create the first college branded satellite radio channel, SiriusXM SEC Radio, an exclusive 24/7 audio channel dedicated to SEC sports. (November 2017)
- Move of SEC Football Media Days to a new market, taking the signature event to the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta while adding a fan event in Centennial Olympic Park to expand the kickoff week to five days of activities. (July 2018)

A CAREER IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

On March 12, 2015, the Presidents and Chancellors of the SEC announced Greg Sankey would succeed Mike Slive as Commissioner of the SEC.

Sankey, 55, first joined the SEC staff in 2002 as Associate Commissioner for Governance, Enforcement and Compliance and later added supervision of the league's championships staff to his responsibilities. He was elevated to Executive Associate Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for the league office in 2012, becoming responsible for the day-to-day operation of the SEC Office.

Sankey has been active within the NCAA committee structure. He has served on the Division I Legislative Council, the Committee on Academic Performance and the NCAA Committee on Infractions, and most recently served on the Enforcement/Infractions Working Group created to address recommendations from the independent Commission on College Basketball.

Before moving to the SEC, Sankey served as Commissioner of the Southland Conference for nearly seven years. He joined the Southland Conference staff in 1992 where he served as both assistant and associate commissioner before he was named its Commissioner in 1996 at the age of 31.

Prior to his term at the Southland Conference, he was Director of Compliance and Academic Services at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, LA. While at Northwestern State, Sankey also coached the Demons' golf teams for two years, earning the Golf Coaches Association of America District VI Coach of the Year award in 1991. Before his tenure at Northwestern State, he was the Director of Intramural Sports at Utica College in upstate New York.

A native of Auburn, NY, Sankey earned his master's degree from Syracuse University and his undergraduate degree from the State University of New York College at Cortland. Sankey and his wife, Cathy, reside in Birmingham, AL, and have two adult daughters, Hannah and Moriah.

SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Southeastern Conference's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's newly constructed Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 27th-annual title game is set for December 1 and will be televised nationally by CBS Sports.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

The 2017 SEC Championship Game was the highest rated game in the nation for the entire regular season. No. 7 Georgia's 28-7 win over No. 2 Auburn drew an average overnight rating of 8.4 and 18 share, the best for CBS since 2013, when the Iron Bowl drew an 8.6/18 rating and share. Those figures are up 20 percent from last year's SEC Championship Game between Alabama and Florida (7.0/15).

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC Championship Game has drawn 24 capacity crowds in its 26-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2026. The new agreement allows the SEC the option of adding up to two successive five-year extensions.

The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 21 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: Florida 38, Arkansas 28

Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas. Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21. Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three. Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions. Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: Georgia 30, Arkansas 3

Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus. Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards. Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game. The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line. On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin. Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: Florida 34, Arkansas 3

A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory. Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times. Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.
